SACHA's Vision: SACHA envisions a world free of violence and oppression.

This is an exciting opportunity to support meaningful change in our community and to work with an amazing group of women.

We ask potential volunteers for a minimum two-year commitment, participating in about 4 hours/month of meeting time.

As part of SACHA's work against racism and other oppressions, we strive to reflect the diversity of the communities we serve. Women who are First Nations, Métis, black, immigrant, refugee, Deaf, lesbian, bisexual; women from racialized communities, women with disAbilities, and trans women are encouraged to apply.

We invite interested women-identified community members to review information on SACHA's website www.sacha.ca. For further information please contact the Chair of SACHA's Management Committee at mc@sacha.ca.

Thank you for your interest in SACHA.
